

Traditions Training, LLC presents:

Officer Development School

HOSTED BY GREEN RIDGE FIRE COMPANY

This is not your “average” incident command class! Learn real-world, fire ground proven tips and techniques that will apply to you as a newly appointed or well seasoned fire officer. Our experienced instructors, from some of the nations busiest and most respected departments, will refine, reaffirm and refresh your leadership skill sets and tactical decision making during this 16-hour interactive program. Each student will be afforded time to practice leadership and decision making skills during multimedia enhanced operational simulations: “reading” building clues, making size-up’s, providing on-scene reports, managing expanding incidents, and more!

November 13 & 14, 2010 - 0800hrs to 1700hrs

Green Ridge Fire Company: 500 West Dutton Mill Road, Aston, PA
$225 registration fee - Maximum of 40 students, register today!

For More Information & Registration: WWW.TRADITIONSTRAINING.COM

Topics to Include:

- ✓“Command Presence”
- ✓The Combat Ready Fire Officer
- ✓Incident Size-Up
- ✓Situational Awareness
- ✓On-Scene Reports
- ✓Crew Leadership/Accountability
- ✓Tactical Considerations for Fire Officers
- ✓Objective-Based Incident Management
- ✓Fireground Resources/Crew Leadership
- ✓Managing Accountability
- ✓Incident Documentation
- ✓MAYDAY Management Essentials

Scheduled to Instruct:

Division Chief Ricky Riley - Clearwater Fire, Fl.
Captain Dan Shaw - Fairfax County, Va
Lieutenant Doug Mitchell, Jr. - FDNY
Firefighter Nick Martin - DCFD, Kentland 33

